Promise Land - Malik Yusef, Kanye West, Adam Levine

[Malik Yusef]

Now whatcha finna hear is an update
On what we been on as of late
See I was reading a late notice on the date that I wrote this, you hear
Time flies in the leer
And you wonder where the day went See Iâ€™m a leader in my field, but Iâ€™m behind on my truck payments
So this is something that could help you raise your head like hello
See this is not brown red or yellow
Not a white or black poem
This is a prayer to a guardian angel
To protect our fathers mothers sisters brothers sons and daughters
Until we bring our troops back home
Cause it feel like we all in the same platoon
And weâ€™ll all be extinct soon
If we continue to suffer from other peopleâ€™s crimes
I think we well overdo for change this time
And I know they donâ€™t wanna see me cooped up in a benz
Theyâ€™d rather see me cooped up these pens Therefore I release the ink thatâ€™s cooped up in these pens
And let my art-ticulate
People are so slow to love, or so quick to hate
Now some things finna change because we say so Lets stop looking at how bad things are, and focus on how well they may go
And this is a declaration
That weâ€™ll be fair again
Especially to those Americans, who were Americans, before there were Americans
This is to a small young family, thatâ€™s booming out of space
Theres room in outer space
This is to my people

The human race

[Adam Levine]

I need you to Take us to the promise land
Don't just make us promises
It's too late to let go of our hand

[Kanye West]

They say we need a prophet that can touch on the topics and make it hot as the tropics, well you got it (you got it)

[Levine]

Take us to the promise land
Don't just make us promises
It's too late to let go of our hand

[Kanye]

Everybody saying please don't let go
I hear it over and over and over like a echo
I see it in my dreams, I feel the effect though People drowning in debt
Somebody to the rescue
Everybody that saying we need something special
Nah man, we need something extra terrestrial
Outta this world, speak for us be the vessel
Outta the box, reach for it through the threshold (Uh)
Through all of the stress though
What's best of all, people screaming like a festival
Just applaud, this moment is special ya'll

[Levine]

I need you to
And I need you to
And I need you to
I need you to
I need you to
