floating down a dream river with the moon and stars above maybe they can help me find a way to have your love sleeping in the darkest room dreaming you are in my arms oh how I wish my dream comes true with all my heart
don't want this night to end don't want to live without you
with you by my side
I know it's make believe but please don't wake me
I don't mind
but please don't wake me
but please don't wake me
I don't mind
