One touch of my burning hand
Eternal blazin? Hell on Earth
Vaporize everything that stands
Destroy everything of worth

Killing one or killing them all
The Choice is not yours to make
Paint the skies in flamin? lights
Decided by terror not fate

Roll of thunder, crack of light
Piercing cries and screams
Looking back on simpler days
Your reality is my dream

Longing for Death's embrace
Only way out of this place
You'll stay on this demon's Earth
To feel the pain of ungodly births
No one will be spared
From the reign of terror
No one will be spared
From the reign of terror

One touch of my burning hand
Eternal blazin? Hell on Earth
Vaporize everything of worth

Try again in a thousand years
Purify this worthless place
Melt the hearts of a thousand tears
Torch the fesh of the wicked race

Hatred in its purest form
Will crush the souls of the weak
So stand and die at my hand
Or kneel and die at my feet
