"You and me in silence
You and me in love

I can see your face
Barring the dim light baby
I can feel your embrace
It's making me weak now, baby
I wanna feel your hands all over
And in my mind
I want to explode now baby
To be one with time

You make me dizzy honey,
You make me scream
You make me dizzy honey,
You make me scream

You and me together baby,
Speaking with no words
You and me together, darling
It's like a curse
You and me together, baby
Speaking without words
You and me together, honey
It's like a curse

It's always the same now, sugar
We just don't speak
And like always, darling
You make me weep
Like no one else you know how
To reach me
And like no one else
Eager to teach me

Forever and always, baby
Me and you
All over my body, baby
Always you"
