Can I act like an angel
if I live like a jerk
Can I keep on disguising
Can I make believe that I don't deceive
No..no..no

[Chorus:]
Send the wild women out the backdoor
My wife is knocking at the frontdoor
They made me a winner they made me a sinner
I don't know what to do
Dirty money in the left hand
While the preacher's shaking my right hand
They made me a winner they made me a sinner
I don't know what to do

When I'm riding on top of the wave of success
Will I lose my devotion
Will I fail to see what I used to be oh..oh..oh

[Chorus:]
Send the wild women out the backdoor
My wife is knocking at the frontdoor...

I'll have to carry on as two persons in one
