Its a disaster, You're sinking faster than castles in the sand
Your world crashes and in a flash its ashes in your hand
But you hear, rising up from your broke dreams, the voice of truth that screams

Say "goodbye" to the lies in the shadows
Let it go and say "hello" to the
New you stepping out for the very first time
Welcome to your life

Why are you waiting, frustrating your hesitating heart
You know you need grace, so take a first taste, that's the place to start
Is hopelessness existence?
You've reached the end
Here's where it all begins

Say "goodbye" to the lies in the shadows
Let it go and say "hello" to the
New you stepping out for the very first time
Welcome to your life

How its meant to be
Beautiful and free
When you finally
Say "goodbye"

Say "goodbye" to the lies in the shadows
Let it go and say "hello" to the
New you stepping out for the very first time

Say "goodbye" to the lies in the shadows
Let it go and say "hello" to the
New you stepping out for the very first time
Welcome to your life
