Verse: Jehovah God I reveal my confused Heart, unlock this firm and well-built guard. Step into this selfishness and prideful place and clean this broken heart with different parts in many places, Jehovah God I'm gonna be still to avoid the broken parts that cut and scar. So one by one pick up the parts that are none like you God, one by one

Chorus: One By One, One By One

Verse Two: Jehovah God I reveal my confused Heart, unlock this firm and well-built guard. Step into this selfishness and prideful place and clean this broken heart with different parts in many places, Jehovah God I'm gonna be still to avoid the broken parts that cut and scar. So one by one pick up the parts that are none like you God, one by one

Vamp: Jehovah God, Hear My Cry, I Surrender All
