He's got free hands
And plenty of time
He's got no place to be
He's got no one to see

She's got this black light
And plenty to find
She's not scared of the truth
She's not closing her eyes

He's got no ground
And nothing to hold
He's not carried away
He's not making her stay

She's got three tries to find where he hides
She's not letting him go
She's not passing him by

(Keep your eyes where I can see them)
(Don't you hide your face from me)

With the lights low
No one can see all the scars on his heart
How he'd race to the start

She's got this one aim to be his escape
She knows all they could be
She was never afraid

(Keep your eyes where I can see them)
(Don't you hide your face from me)

Please don't fade away
Please don't fade away

He's got these bright eyes
I've got these arms open wide

Please don't fade away
Please don't fade away

Keep your eyes where I can see them
Don't you hide your face from me

(He's got free hands
And plenty of time
He's got no place to be
He's got no one to see)

(She's got this black light
And plenty to find
She's not scared of the truth
She's not closing her eyes)
