she takes it slow,
she's still healing.
sleeping so she cannot feel.
"let this go,"
whispers, she whispers at night.

turn my face from the light.
and if the wind's not blowing hard enough
to lift me out of sight,
i don't care much.
i don't care much.

she takes it slow, (i don't care much)
she's still healing. (i don't care much)
sleeping so she cannot feel.
"let this go,"
whispers, she whispers at night.

maybe if i could sink
where even submarines had it rough,
i'd drown the way that i think:
i don't care much.
i don't care much

she takes it slow, (i don't care much)
she's still healing. (i don't care much)
sleeping so she cannot feel.
"let this go,"
whispers, she whispers at night.

eighteen years,
she's still the same.
but she doesn't care either way.

she takes it slow, (i don't care much)
she's still healing. (i don't care much)
sleeping so she cannot feel.
"let this go,"
whispers, she whispers,
whispers, she whispers,
whispers, she whispers at night.
