Jintro Sarto's got them blues again
Right in the corner of his eye
Eases his metal minding heart on cherry beer
Tellin' crap sidewalk stories
Tryin' to get back in the middle of the road
I says we're halfway there
Man, I don't care
I don't give a shit
And I never will
Jintro and the Great Luna
And a broken man and a wronged wife
A twisted soul
And one more call for alcohol
Mingo Mango
This is the day of doom
Spit your fire, I'll go down soon
But ain't you gonna tell me
What you want me to do
About wanting you
Oh, Baby
What ya want me to do
Jintro Sarto's got them blues again
Oh, Baby, every morning in my head
The skies are sad
And the sun comes up
And blind my eyes from behind
Jintro's mad, Jintro's sad
Jintro's got a broken head
Jintro wants a cigarette
Takes his broken mind to bed
Now I'm gone and now I'm dead
Oh, Baby, I wish we never met
Oh, Baby,
What ya want me to do
What ya want me, what ya want me to do, Baby
I'll be a goddamn
I'll be a goddamn fool for you, Baby
Jintro Sarto, Jintro Sarto's got them blues again
Jintro Sarto, Jintro Sarto's got them blues again
AAAAAAH
