trouble got your name boy, yeah high fall down, yeah
you fall down
motherfucker you've been takin' down down on your back sold that razor jack see that river flow man you ain't never coming back thinking 'bout time dying looks divine the lonely thought of freedom still burning in your mind well you get it, so take it, yeah take it and burn this mind and body down and down, and down
just burn this mind and body i fall down, yeah
say hey brother you been fallin' down down on this life
time cuts you like a knife
see that train a roll
looks like you're going for a ride
fever starts to burn
waiting for your turn
lord something in your eyes says you ain't never gonna learn you'll get it, yeah so take it, yeah take it cold burn this mind and body down

cold burn your mind and body come on and burn it down your big house is burning down hard time will burn you down let me see ya burn it down i fall down motherfucker move your shit right now
sure-nuff brother it a comes around

you'll get it, so take it, yeah take it
just burn your mind and body down
