superman inside my brain hit me like a rumblin' train this crucifixion sets me free mind-addiction pulling me into a void so cold and real hammers like a ton of steel expansion lies beyond decay push all the limits until they crumble no one can find me here i'm on fire blazin' fierce yeah the end is oh so near no you can touch me here i'm a fire blazin' fierce everything down in here is getting all so clear birth of a man first flower shines watch them breed and come alive the unborn self so rarely seen hallucination eating me these thoughts my soul try to conceal just hammer on 'til i reveal all the secrets that pave the way push all the limits until they crumble
see, i'm a fire blazin' fierce everything is getting all so clear down in here [guitar solo]
no one can find me here

i'm on fire
it's on fire i walk down terror boulevard and i go alone he said the end is terrible even for the good there is no moment of truth yet i must endure stretch the outer limits baby i'm searchin' for the cure i must reach the pinnacle high to be set free well past this hideous nothing which devours me and i'm willing to sacrifice all this primal space for one minute of solitude found in this other place i'm rolling like a winter tide unlock the doorways of your mind for isolation works on the time we borrow motion breaks the silent tide vision seeks but will not find for all the answers lie beyond tomorrow, yeah

no one can find me here
i'm looking for a new way lady i got to get a new trip baby can't ya see i'm on my way
