been down so long
i need something to move me honey sing that song the one that kills these lonelies you're my crown of thorns dressed in a pretty little smile i can give you a reason to stay for a while groove so mean in motion it hurts just to touch come on and take my hand and i'll show you how to, yeah!
let me touch you
said baby shine like flowers in the springtime cold hazel eyes put here to make the world scream made of flesh and blood and a lightning mind tear the heart apart leave a big hole inside but you ain't ever had nothing like me and i ain't lookin' for love but something i really need so won't you let me touch you [guitar solo]

we got to get it on
we got to make it move
we got to get it on
ya got to dig the groove, so touch it!
[guitar solo]
by the morning sun exhaustion cries i love you sister come on we both know motion burns thru so let's take and take yeah, take this so high let it fly until our hearts collide set it free until our body and soul are torn we need an addiction to call our very own
touch it!
