So naive, the universe is small.
Then again, maybe I'm just stoned.
Could it be, guess you'll never know.
Sucker punch put a buller in your glow.
I said this is dead and gone. I said can't emotion will roll.
Into one million mile wrong road.
To the end I'll drag your ass along.
And the taste is a little like purple sticky hair.
Shooting up your halo.
I say this is dead and gone. I say can't emotion will run.

I say this is dead and gone. I say all the water will roll on.
Smack the jack that hits me back,
It takes a little more everyday.
Kiss the lips of dead Texas, I want to lick the sand and say,
All I have is what I took, you never gave me anything.
Well that's all fine, 'cause this one's mine.
{Repeat 1st verse}
Sucker punch put a buller in your halo.
