I like the universe
But she messes with my words
I'm not talking planets or galaxies
And the distance just makes it worse
I know what you're thinking
This probably sounds rehearsed

So let's give it up for the New Year
Did this party of two have you slightly confused?
Now that our things are divided
She refuses to speak and I'm driftin' to sleep at the wheel

Liquids, powders and pills
Not quite taken against my will
The tastes tests of girls, from all over the world
Who refuse to accept my excuses
She put up with so much
Of my madness and my self-abuse

She would tend to my wounds
And fill me with food
When I'd stumble and drunk for breakfast
She was right to take off
Before she was consumed

So let's give it up for the New Year
Did this party of two have you slightly confused?
Now that our things are divided
She refuses to speak and I'm driftin' to sleep at the

And the distance just makes it worse
You're totally right
Every action was well rehearsed
