All creation redesigned the time is coming
Breathe in
Open up your heart and mind the tides are turning
Breathe in, breathe out

Out goes the dark ignite the heartbeat of the end
Out of the black then comes the light again.

Bones are shaping flesh is born and blood is flowing
Inside
Open up your eyes and ears the wind is blowing
Inside, outside

Out goes the dark ignite the heartbeat of the end
Out of the black then comes the light again.

I've sung my deep commitment
It's written deep inside around me
Stung by the tales of minutes
360 more degrees

I've sung my deep commitment
It's written deep inside around me
Stung by the tales of minutes
360 more degrees

Out goes the dark ignite the heartbeat of the end
Out of the black then comes the light again.
