Someone take my heart away
When the skies are gray,
Will these things ever pass?
Run on, will you run away,
Do you ever stay?
Sometimes trees grow too fast.

I used to think that I didn't have long,
Now I know I was wrong.
Bound in the words of an unwritten song
That we knew all along.

Somewhere,
Can I climb your stare?
I wish that I was there,
But it's all about timing,
You can go wherever you dare,
No one said life was fair,
And the whole world's watching.

I used to think that I didn't have long,
Now I know I was wrong.
Bound in the words of an unwritten song
That we knew all along.

Destiny,
Just let it be,
Destiny,
Nothing's certain,
Predetermined destiny. [6x]
