The deeper the moment I see you
The closer the chosen walks in view
Come for the glowing from a spark
Searching inside the deepest dark

You see through the surface crystal clear
Your visions enlighten, the time is near
The quest of the lonely hopes to find
The deepest dark inside your mind

I can see your heart is true
What else can I do
To spend my time with you?

I am broken from the fall
I come to the call
Staring at you all

The sleep lies awakened, minutes pass
The words of the chosen are here at last
Circles of light provide the spark
Searching inside the deepest dark

Are you speaking from a dream
Looking so serene
Are you what you seem?

I am broken from the fall
I come to the call
Tearing down these walls
