Am I awake or is this a dream
Cuz everything ain't what it seems Everytime I turn see I learn to see
After that somethings chasing me

If you could see inside my head
All the thoughts, they turn to red
And nothing's what it seems
So don't let me fall this way

In all my dreams I can do what's real (Confused on how I feel)
Things aren't what they seem to be (and I can't seem to get back to reality)

How can it be?
I don't think so
I got away out of your hold

Everything I thought I knew was sold out Everything I knew nothing about

Is this real or make believe?
Am I there or there to see?
All these thoughts inside my dreams
And some don't let me fall asleep

In all my dreams I can do what's real (Confused on how I feel)
Things aren't what they seem to be (and I can't seem to get back to reality)
