

Moonages "Crystal Ball"

I can see war and peace - destiny.
I see them cry I see them die in misery.
What I see will surely be - guarantee.
I've tempted fate, now it's too late - and there is no way to escape.
I can see destiny I see it all, I see them rise and fall.
I can see misery, I cry because I can't control this crystal ball.
All's black, no white, the darkest night - miss the light.
I've tempted fate now it's too late - and there is no way to escape.
I can see destiny I see it all I see them rise and fall.
I can see misery but to my surprise I cannot foresee my own demise.
