We live in a world where we must lie to understand the truth /
Though we hold the key to unlock this door, why do we refuse (to)? /
For me it's plain to see we live in a world where every rose will hurt us with its thorn /
And cos all we love just cannot stay we're condemned to mourn /
will beauty find its way /
And all I want to listen to an see, es this fantastic world
this plastic world
on TV... /
Vos all I want to do is run and flee from your atrocities
this insanity that you call real /
we live in a world where there is hate to understand what's love /
Though we always try to appreciate, we kneel and curse or fate /
Don't see it's not too late /
Cos all that's on is what we miss, it's hope and love and tender kisses /
All our lives have run to seed turn it on here's what you need though not true /
Are you trapped, cought in a web you can ask the internet what to do /
Everytime you're feeling blue here's another fantasy just for you /
... from this fantastic world...
