I don't know what to do these days see like every day some new happens, people die,
they kill each other they need to stop

You see the glitter and glamour but you don't know what I've been through I just lost someone who means everything to me

I am standing in the rain, the fight against my pain
the world is breaking down and there is no one here around

My life is not the same since you left things have changed
If you hear me can you help me sing it

OHO WOHO
THROW YOUR HANDS UP
BREAK DOWN THE WALLS
ALL WE NEED IS HOPE
OHO WOHO
I AM FEELING SO ALONE
I NEED SOMEONE

If you ever had a dream just hold on and you will see dreams can come true you need to believe in you

Don't give up the fight hold on to what's right
No matter if they do you wrong just stay strong

REFRAIN

I say the whole world need peace we should may pray for the middele east see,what I can't understand How you can kill each other and be a happy man

I feel like I gotta do some I think we all should do some Help each other on the street and that's how we gonna get peace-PEACE
