Love, hollow, hate, sorrow (x4)

Undead undead
There's evil in my veins
Undead undead
The consummate revenge

How do you forgive the unforgivable?
How could you kill that which has no life?
You once were my sanctuary, and now you are my prison

Loveless
She says she wants to bleed
Hopeless
She says she wants to bleed

I won't let go, I will not hurt
I've had all that I could take so I can just shut you out
I won't let go, I will not hurt
You could never understand me
Just walk away don't say goodbye
How can I shake this disease?
The marks on your neck would never lie

The quickest way to the heart is to cut right through the chest.
You must realize that someday you will die and until then you are worthless
The best way to get over someone is to get on top of someone else and move on
The best way to get over someone is to get on top of
someone else and move on

You could never understand me
Just walk away don't say goodbye
How can I shake this disease?
The marks on your neck would never lie

Why do I feel guilty for what you have done?
The worst part is showing you all the damage that you've caused

You could never understand me
The marks on your neck would never lie
