I saw your eyes convincing
I saw everything that night
You were the quiet actress
A flawed masterpiece

So cold our darkest days
Sleepless our darkest nights
Line after line but love is...
Forever

A beauty bound in cold silver
Broken bottles and empty locket
Exhaling bittersweet
Your words were laced in gold
A gilded memoir engraved
Into my soul
Do you remember that night you led me astray?
Do you recall tainting me with your apathy?

Encapsulating mutilated our malice
Our intoxicated advocating lust for a cause

It's raining sulfur tonight
An anti-climatic procession
Yielding an undying uniformed prestige

So cold our darkest days
Sleepless our darkest nights
Line after line but love is...
Never

Encapsulating mutilated our malice
Our intoxicated advocating lust for a cause
As you walked away that night instilled virtue
A fatal kiss my muse there's nothing I can do for you

A cordial gaze pierces
Sending chills down the nape of
My porcelain neck
MY BLOOD RUNS COLD

Please don't forget me
Long live that sentiment
Please don't forget me...
These words ARE ALL I HAVE

Encapsulating mutilated our malice
Our intoxicated advocating lust for a cause
As you walked away that night instilled virtue
A fatal kiss my muse there's nothing I can do for you

Blow the last candle out
Recoil finish what we've started
For you I'll take this to my grave...
Forever

Please forgive me for wondering
If my love truly engraved
In your heart
Like the finest poetry on concrete
