GO!

I've died one million times
Now I'm buried in the pavement, lying face down
Everything went black before I even closed my eyes
And you will never know what hate is
To feel your insides wither away
And end your life to numb the fucking pain

So let the first snow fall
And bury me under six feet of regret
You've got your trophy
Now leave me to my hate with no regrets
I am the deepest of Jaded
This is a love song
A threnody to these years of worthless waste
And now my hatreds all I fucking have left

I've never had the words to say
But I can quote them all
I am human and I need to be loved
Just like everybody else
So Morrissey, please sing me to sleep
Sing me to sleep
As I live and breathe
You have killed me, you have killed me

I'm not your puppet
So cut these strings and free me from your hands
Get fucking over me
Move!

My fucking pain is my paycheck
Get fucking over me

This is where it all begins
2 EPs and a full length later
And I still can't let go of you

I've never had the words to say
But I can quote them all
I am human and I need to be loved

Just like everybody else
So Morrissey, please sing me to sleep
Sing me to sleep
As I live and breathe
You have killed me, you have killed me

You've got your trophy
Now leave me to my hate with no regrets
I am the deepest shade of Jaded

Precision with incision is a tedious remark
With all the visions of submissions of the fibres in your heart
Penetration validation for as sick as it may seem
Is all a morbid demonstration of what helps me to sleep

Fuck your pretty face!
Fuck your pretty face!
I'm not your puppet
