Within my church
I can see your mediocrity my enemy
Same as you there are majory
Fuck all of you for eternity

Mad Sound on the stage, motherfucker !
Mad Sound on its way, get the fuck off!

I stand alone I thinking why ?
My church is filled with empty lies
No teardrop from no one's eye
I wouldn't sorry when you die

No sense to wait for paradise
It will not come from the skies
I can't create my own fate
That's why I have chosen hate
A trip into my own mind
Trying to change what I left behind
Where to go, which direction
Still far away from perfection

Indifference just what I get
But I deny what I have met
There's no repent, there's no regret
'Cause I wish you to be dead

Reality now slips away
Self-isolation is the only way
No one cares about the fears
Deathbell will disturb your ears
