Concealed senses of the human soul
Penetrate into every cell of the human brain.
It creates bright and wonderful dreams
Of the most mystic desire of a man.
Open contemplation of mystic desire
Recollection of the past
And review of the future
In closed space of own reason
Pink dreams will open internal freedom
But your dreams broke upon dark shape
Of eternal chaos.
Smashed dreams have been covered
By brown streams of musty blood.
Have flowed from reservoir
Of human sadness and sorrow
Eery torments of contemplation
Of smashed dreams
Forgotten future with cleft past

Joy and grief before eyes.
Smashed Dreams
Sombre state of ruthless void.
Smashed Dreams
Of the most mystic desire
Grey splinters of Smashed Dreams
Reflect world as mirror
With distortion genuineness
Grimas of human face.
Black real world and lucid dreams,
Black dreams and lucid real world...
...They are interflowing together.
Concealed senses of the human soul
Become broken in cells of the human brain
Infamise what you've preached, devolution
Blaze of sin, tortured soul faithless in death
Be insane, be afraid 'cause it's too late.
