starring in my own existence denying what it's like segments of recollections dazzling white anger sliced emotions apathy irony disillusion whisper sorrows in my ears I fear the anger
I fear the rage
I fear the sorrow
I fear the shame
won't be the servant
won't be the slave
won't suffer under domination won't you break slowly melting light and shadow into a darkness called delight downers clouds attacked ashamed and numb

won't you rage fear sorrow shame
won't you break rage fear sorrow shame
