give me some respect give me my innocence back I wait in silence for your apology sorrow bites me with sharp teeth despair keeps me warm wisdom volatile
wisdom volatile
inner fear makes me forget the pain hesitate I am looking back deviate from alternatives exonerate from doubtless thoughts why am I afraid of the questions
I ask silence surrounds me wailing waiting for my scorching breath wisdom

I will not be pushed
I will not be oppressed
wisdom volatile
wisdom volatile inner fear makes me forget the pain hesitate
I am looking back deviate from alternatives exonerate from doubtless thoughts wisdom
I will not be pushed
wisdom volatile
