Live in fear of our world
Incautious thoughts of destruction
Go to sleep it will disappear
As a dream will be clear
You wish for earth the rebirth
The air won't encumber you any longer
As you reach for someone's hand
As we see no mans land

Your dream will end
And then you will take a stand
To this and make the world exist
The slave inside
Is the evil way of mind
For you there is nothing left to do

This is what life has come to be
See the end of technology

The day will come as you see
For us all that is left

See the light of unknown places
As we all have different faces
Reality makes you grow colder
As it brings you to your shoulders

You can not have
The no mans land
It is just a dream
For someone's hand
Do not look back
On the past
The fight for light
It will last

Look around on the ground
A lifeless form to be born
A face for earth to be lent
No mans land - no mans land
