"The sky will fall it's grey of dust
And those whose prayers are about to be answered
That wretched life through all times"

The time is now 3797
The vision of declaim don't even think about heaven
The world is lost to the antichrist
He unlocks the door to the third reich
To be alive is to serve and to kneel
The process goes on until you know it's for real
Rest for now the day is over
A lethal sleep rests upon your shoulder

The third reich is now in stand
To take the world into it's hands
A long time ago the prophet has claimed
That everything is turning and this is the end

Look into the crystal ball
From this world the world will fall
Follow the evil master
In silence we see disaster

He sets the world in fear
He wants us to call him master
We are all fighting eachother
To reborn with another
Mankind will never live again
We all want to save the pain

The atomic blast will lighten up
A nuclear war that won't be stopped
The cries for help will echo high
All freedom's rebels now we die
The chain will always be unbound
In all our eyes a legend drowns

Destruction comes now
Why won't it stop?
Existence fades out
To be reborn
Which man will die for

A lonely cry
Fast death we will be
Deceased by dawn

This is what we call unholy war
The war for you to fight
Demons will rise up from creeping shadows
Shadows that lights the night

Death won't stop to seek
As sorrow will follow
No one will be immortal
We will prepare
Face up to reality
As the voices speak
Follow me now my child
The path of evil glory
And the pearl of unholy sickness
It will pure your soul
The shadows of darkness will arise
So the tale will end
And so we all shall die

The end
