Is it sane or insanity
Is it fake or reality
I don't mind this triviality
Because it cures my sanity

Closing eyes and drifts away
No more cries no yesterday
Shades of darkness showing the way
I pray please let me stay today

Torn away quickly by the breeze
From this vile body then there were the dream

Is it sane or insanity
Is it fake or reality

I don't mind this triviality
Because it cures my sanity

Immune dreams placed outside
Let me sooth you he cried
Stop your constant brooding
Absorb me let me inside

Reciding from reality
Into the upcurrent among the woolpacked clouds

Is it sane or insanity
Is it fake or reality
This is true insanity
This is my reality

Absorb my eyes
