

Mourning Sign "Desert Sun"

Visit "Desert Sun" on MotoLyrics.com

Those who have lost their hope, those who live in despair
Even they will be reached by the rays of the desert sun

Intensive and violent passion
Surrendering of virginity
Dare to taste the forbidden fruit
Intoxicated by its sweetness

Touched by the spakel of life
So innocent it can be
Cursed to carry thy enemy abandoned by your shelter
Breeth in the air as a sign of life
An image is taking form
Unwelcome child is born
Blessed by the light of the desert sun

Look at this forgotten child
And the trail of tears on her face
Love this lonely fragile child
And gently wipe her tears away
