

Mourning Sign "Just Another Jesus"

Visit "Just Another Jesus" on MotoLyrics.com

Just another warning
Just another revelation
Just another mindtrap
Just another mourning
Just another insane
Just another retard
Just another jester
Just another jesus

I wish the magic god would go away stay away never come back
I won't bow down before you never will I sink so low

Typical insanity

So you think you're the right one the next god in line

Don't you think that something has been overrated right here

Just another warning...

Is this just another lullaby to lull masses into senses Reach out your hand for someone to take it and lead you away

Typical insanity

You're just another jesus without the crown of thorns.
Save me mister jesus I'm too weak on my own hah
