My past lies between distant suns
Rid of me out of reach for you

The darkness is falling won't ever clear
Digging with your nails but you're nowhere near

Lost in thoughts caught in life
Check your mind there's no tomorrow
The end of a line a life in sorrow
All is calm after your last sigh
Eyes closed as though she was asleep
You're just weak lay down and weep

Gather around me, gather around me
I will heal your selfinflicted wounds

Lost in thoughts caught in life
The sun goes down your life gets darker
Don't sit around you won't be here later

All is calm after your last sigh
Like swords above the central goddess
Turn around and face your mess

Gather around me, gather around me
I will heal your selfinflicted wounds

Chanting your prayers - makes it all right
Godfearing lifes - makes it all right
Dehumanize - makes it all right
Longing for death - makes it all right

The darkness...

Lost in thoughts caught in life
Check your mind...

Gather around me, gather around me
I will heal your selfinflicted wounds
