I have paid off all my dues
now I want some back Shouldn't have to beg or steal for what I should've had Pulling back under fire cursed my only friend
just in time the hero's dead no angels left to send

CHORUS:

Crossing thru rivers
I've thrown all my stones
I'm losing rhythm
I'm losing control
Victim of the roadhouse blues but everything is red trust in me my only friend
say what must be said

Who lays the groove
that makes me move
nothing to prove-it's the words that soothe my mind in time will find the rhymes and signs to shine and shine...

Crossing thru rivers
I've thrown all my stones
I'm losing rhythm
I've lost all control
