When she told me goodbye, nearly broke me right in two
And oh, the nights I cried over a love so untrue
So I got myself up out of bed, started walking off these blues
The way my feet brought me in here, it was almost like they knew
That somehow I'd see you And find there was Still some love left in this heart of mine Still some love only you could find What a sweet surprise to feel it stirring up inside And know there was still some love left in this heart of mine
Still some love
About took my breath away when I heard you say hello
When I looked into your eyes, I felt something letting go
I don't know exactly what it was, but it hit me like a live wire
Then I stole a kiss 'neath the moon above and set that night on fire
Kindling my desire
And found there was Still some love...
