Saw the kids waiting for the day
Saw their eyes, there's nothing left to say
Like a game they started that fight
Lightning fires in midst of the night
Of the night

Saw the kids waiting for the day
Saw their mothers bending down to pray
Saw the beasts using their might
Once again the darkness lost all that's bright
All that's bright

Come children sing
The firebirds will sadness bring
Come children play as if it were a dream
Sail away, hey, hey, sail away

saw their eyes, there is nothing left to say
Like a game they started that fight
Lightning fires in midst of the night
Of the night

Come children sing...
