We suffered some days
And closed our stairways home
A short little while
So close but far as well
From our dreams

Finally came the night
We've made up with our minds
Far away saving shores
Broken toys in hand
A fairytale's end

Reach out for this land
It's your land
It's so far from where we started
Reach out for this land
It's your land
until the morning light will lead us apart

But at least we feld strong
Stronger than the pain
Neither beggars nor heroes
Are able to pretend
That this story won't end

Reach out...
