Circumstances - know who'll fix you up
On to the premises -just pass the loving cup
In a dreamless slumber
Old intentions outnumbered
Climbing the tree, all but senselessly

Come to neverland
Dog star struck
Come to neverland

Hoping empathy will somehow heal the world
Dabbling in melancholy, the wounded birds allure
Muses shadow casting
An exile everlasting
Drawn laughing to the flame
Preoccupied with pain

Come to neverland
Dog star struck
Come to neverland

Come to neverland!
Come to neverland!
