Sonic teenage Guinevere, sunbeam-scenequeen loves her dollhouse livin Armani-armoured silver-stallion saints flock around their prize high flying producer Day-child trembling Spahn-ranch rain-king dancing and the wheel turns for the Manchild is arissen omnipothead, killer-god on the bus ,that buzz to never, never, never-ever land too much runny paint to make sense, too honest liars to eye Lancelot is choking on the rosemary only looking back & back & back back to where the babies blood paint doors ; teenage Guinevere is no more you can't kill me ,Im already dead you can't catch me ,Ive already fled you can't free me , Im already free and I'll change your destiny.

trust in me-
I'll change your destiny!
