You brought me to Your banqueting table
You give me more than enough, You are able
You gave up all you had, so that I could live in peace
Your precious Son He died as a sacrifice to me

You have brought me to this house of praise my God
And I kneel here at your alter
You have purchased me, You bought me with Your blood
Redeemed am I forever
At the foot of the cross is where I will be
Humble King

You are the love, and the beauty of the whole earth
Your hand it moves the Word in every heart to go forth
The result of Your promises in all the land is shining through
As Your glory falls, every tongue will worship You

You have brought me to this house of praise my God
And I kneel here at your alter
You have purchased me, You bought me with Your
blood
Redeemed am I forever
At the foot of the cross is where I will be
Humble King

At the foot of the cross is where I will be
At the foot of the cross is where I will be
At the foot of the cross is where I will be

Humble King
