Here we are still fighting
Fighting for our lives
Danger in the trenches
But we still survive

We know who we are
We know who we are
We remember every move
We still bear the scars

Don't look for maturity
Don't you even dare
We are our own security
And we don't even care

We know what we do
We know what we do
We do what we must
And we admire our attitude

Be damned if you can't handle it
Hope you break your neck
Sex and death

Show 'em your guitar

Here we are in trouble
Comin' every day
Slaughter in the alley
Make our bleedin' day

We know all the rules
We know all the rules
We know more than you would like
We ain't in your school

We are tired of you now
We are sick and tired
We are tired of hearing you
Say we should be quiet

You ain't worth our time

You ain't worth our time
You ain't worth a nickel, babe
You ain't worth a dime

We ain't gonna give it up
As long as we got breath
Sex and death

The answer to life's mystery
Is simple and direct
Sex and death

Runnin' down the highway
And we ain't tired yet
Sex and death
Sex and death
