Take me from this dreadful place
Hide me from the man in black
Save me from this cold embrace
Save my life, I break your back

Shake the world, I swear I know the world
I know just what it needs
I will make all hearts to break
I make all souls to bleed

Save me from the dogs of war
Roll away the door of stone
Raise me from the killing floor
Save myself I break your bones

Will you break, will you deserve the love you take?
Can you survive the fall?
Are you the one to save us or will you just enslave us?
And will you face the law?
Will you face the law?

Wake me from this dream of blood
Now before the murder starts
I would not help you if I could
Save my head, I break your heart

Shake the world, I swear I hate the world
I smell, it's rotten breath
Blood and souls and mind control
The world desires our death

Shake the world, I swear I love the world
The world know what I crave
More confusion, abuse and disillusion
The world defiles the brave

Nothing can go wrong
Nothing can go wrong
Nothing can go wrong
