Walking on the water
I saw shadows you'd caressed
Filling me with urgency
You promised me the best
But you lied, yes you lied
Now I can never trust that feeling
'cause you lied to me
In glimpses it reveals itself
Beyond me every time
You said you'd show me, lead me there
Turn water into wine
But you lied.....etc
I see myself as you do now
I'd laugh too if I could
Once again the joke's on me
Like I somehow knew it would
'cause you lied.....etc
Walking on the water I saw shadows you'd caressed....
