

Mortal God "A Prayer"

Visit "A Prayer" on MotoLyrics.com

From the depths I call you my master
Master hear my cry
Hear with your ears the sound of my prayers
If you master keep in mind....the sins, then who can take it?

My saviour make me deliverer of your peace
So, that there.....
Where is hate, I would bring love
Where is contempt, I would bring forgiveness
Where is discord, I would bring harmony
Where is mistake, I would show the truth

Where is unbelief, I would help them to believe

Where is despair, I would bring the confidence
Where is dark, I would create your light
Where is sorrow, I would bring laugh and fun

Because when you give you get
When you lose you find
When you forget you're forgiven
When you die you'll rise above....To the endless life

So that, oh master, I wouldn't try so hard
To seek for confort than console others
Seek for undrestandment than to understand
Ask for love than to love
