What do you say to the people of the world?
To the sick, to the sad, and the starving?
So many would say look the misery unfurls, it's just endless rats and scarring.
But I digress, I know we've got it lucky girl, but you look like you could use some feeding!
So here, ingest some angst from my world, and we'll retard what you're repeating.

You didn't act you just tried so communicate this time its a fear between you and I because you're insecure and you lie face the facts and wake up facts the facts so we'll make up or fuck it for nothing perfect because nothing is worth this and when you settle for something worse I'll just go forwards you go reverse I'll make sure to point out that I hope he got to the point and took it out on you

out on me out for everyone to see how short of a relation but the length doesn't matter in self gratification and when you settle for something less I'll be the first to confess that hey she could do so much better but its okay because daddy let her

I have no facts, girl I just lied, the nomenclature of our time He'll call you maybe, on the phone, and ease your problems, and text your woes you'll fold these problems and crease these woes he'll say enough to take off your clothes its just whats expected because why of this would you be a suspect?

I'll just go forwards you go reverse
out on everyone to see just how short of a relation but the size doesn't matter in self gratification.
