Life is different.. when i see you life is different.. when i am by you life is different..when i am passing by but you should that im alright your standing there but you are still not noticing me. llife is different its cuzz you change me. but life doesnt have to that way.cuzz im ok!well i am asking you something but your acting like its really nothing but i still holding in.cuzz life is different when you change me..... life is different..when i see you life is different ..when im by you life is different when im passing by but you should see that im alright life changes life life changes with you cuzz life is different but im alright.....
