Rainbows shown on the glass, dew drops gathered on the grass.

And the yellow sun came into view.

Another goddamn message from you.

Well despite your best efforts, I feel alright.

Against my better judgement, I'd feel alright.

Despite your ediments of violence, I'd feel alright.

Despite the force of your fury, I'd feel al-alright.

You're mean to me. Why must you be mean to me?

You shouldn't forget, you see, what you mean to me
