sun flashing red and then orange then opting for secession on the day when you came to the door with you terrible confession
i know you've come to take my toys away and i know you've come to take my toys away skin flushing red and then glowing when you come inside and the moonlight watching all over you i have got my mouth open wide

and when it drops, you're gonna feel it.
oh yeah
oh yeah
